During closing hours of the branch libraries, for information and returns of books, users can turn to the main library.
Hours may vary on the following months: July and August.
Closed on Christmas and Easter holidays.

3. ACCESS TO LIBRARY

Everyone can access, consult the library's collections and study in the library.

Seatings are limited and mostly intended for those who use the library items.

Most items in our collections are held in closed shelves. Users are asked to fill out a form and hand it to the librarians.

Items of Guicciardi collection (GUICC) have to be ordered by e-mail contacting biblio.pubblico@unipd.it and they’ll be available the day after the request.

4. CATALOGUES AND FACILITIES

Use University of Padova Library Catalogue (OPAC) to search and browse for our collections:

http://catalogo.unipd.it

(for books published before 1990, you should also browse the card catalogue)

Facilities:

Each branch library provides:
- self-service print/copy facilities;
- access to online catalogue OPAC;
- computers with Word Processing;
- all licensed electronic resources are available from computers located in the libraries. University of Padova law students can request their account in the computer room.

The wifi connection Unipd Wi-Fi is active in Palazzo Bo building.

5. PHOTOCOPYING SERVICE

You can use our self-service copy facilities to copy collection items subject to the Library's preservation policy, copyright and data protection laws.

A4 B/W photocopying is charged at euro 0.05. per sheet. You can use your University Card or your Library Card.

For further information visit: http://padova.ricohmyprint.it
